

MANY HANDSOMELY DECORATED AUTOS AND RIGS IN OS-APLE PARADE AT FAIR

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mrs. W. J. Glasgow and Francis Moore.

The Prize Winner.
The White Swan car, the favorite from the first time it paraded past the stand, was H. C. Myles's Winton car, driven by Ernest Myles. It was a mass of white, the body being heavily draped with paper flowers, large festoons of white ribbon and with two paper swans on in front, to which were attached - satin - ribbons. The driver wore a white flannel suit and the body of girls wore all white with white beaver hats and plumes. This car was the popular choice for first prize in the car division and was given an ovation when it was awarded the silver cup. Those who rode in the Myles car were: Misses Kathleen Myles, Wanda Hase, Ann Lee Gaines, Henrietta Buckler, Frances Clark and Lilian Newton.

Hobble Skirt Car.
A hobble skirt car, W. J. Bule's Buick, was decorated with pale blue and white, with a "maid" in a hobble effect on the rear, the color of the gown corresponding to the colors of the decorations on the car. The hobble "maid" was Eugene Ferguson. Occupants of the car were Misses Josephine Ray, Irene Ferguson and Gladys Bule. Fire was represented by the W. H.

Charming Hair

Every Woman Can Have It By Using Parisian Sage Guaranteed by Kelly & Pollard.

There is a reason for the phenomenal sale of Parisian Sage in the United States since it was first introduced into America, and the sales this year are breaking all records.

And the reason is plain to all: Parisian Sage does just as advertised.

Ask Kelly & Pollard about it. They will tell you that they rigidly guarantee it to cure dandruff, stop falling hair or itching scalp in two weeks, or money back.

But one thing that has made Parisian Sage so famous is its peculiar power to turn the harsh, unattractive hair that many women possess into luxuriant and radiant hair in a short time. Women of refinement the country over are using it and it never disappoints.

Sold by leading druggists everywhere and in El Paso by Kelly & Pollard for 50 cents a large bottle. The girl with Auburn hair is on every package.

Hawkins Reo car, decorated in flame colored bunting. It was driven by Mr. Hawkins and was occupied by Misses Mary Leighton, Beulah Brown, Birdie Hawkins and Mrs. W. H. Hawkins.

The Electric Cars.
The electric division was small, but it was a close competition for the first prize in this class. Cupid's own car was judge J. E. Bowen's Waverly electric limousine. It was covered with red hearts and festoons of ribbon with white, live doves attached to the ends of the ribbons. On the front of the car Cupid, represented by Little Kenneth Dubose, rode in state and threatened the occupants of the gas cars with his arrows. On the rear of the car appeared the sign, "Oh you fair! My heart is with you." The car was driven by Judge Bowen, dressed in evening clothes and accompanied by Mrs. Bowen also in evening costume.

The advent of winter was heralded by Mrs. Marguerite Buckler Stevenson's Pritchley electric limousine, which was covered with cotton to represent snow and frost. The car was covered with small electric light bulbs, which were flashed as the car glided past the stands. Miss Josephine Clardy accompanied Mrs. Stevenson in the car, each wearing white gowns with red turbans.

The Carriage Division.
The Os-Aple carriage led the carriage division of the parade. This was decorated with green and white, smilax having been used to trim the body of the carriage and the wheels. Tiny electric bulbs were concealed among the smilax and twinkled as the carriage moved. R. L. Daniel drove this carriage and was accompanied by Mrs. Daniel and his daughter, Miss Lucile.

The only entry in the pony carriage class was that of Miss Pearl Ponsford, the daughter of H. T. Ponsford. Her rig was decorated in the national colors and Misses Edna Scotten, Sadie Ponsford and Manuel Ponsford rode with her.

Dr. Anna Reum drove a single phaeton decorated in warm, rich red, with bells attached to the back of the carriage. The effect of Dr. Reum's black gown and the black coat of the horse in contrast with the red of the decorations was striking.

Japanese Rig.
A Japanese rig, a one horse carriage decorated in large yellow chrysanthemums and with the occupants dressed in Japanese costumes, with the girls carrying parasols, was a feature. This carriage was also lighted by small lamps concealed in different parts of the decorations. Misses Calhoun, Milla May Bond, Ada Lindor and Mrs. J. B. Dubose rode in this rig.

Pomeroy's tallyho, with William H. Buck as whip, was occupied by 11 girls dressed in white. They were Misses Elanah Davis, Eleanor Eubanks, Lillian Crawford, Edith Robinson, Milda Connolly, Maggie Davis, Amorette Cobb, Jennie Davis, Toille Bailey, Pauline Bryan and Hazel Davis.

The Prizes.
The judges who awarded the prizes in the auto and carriage divisions occupied the stand in front of the grand stand and examined the turnouts as they passed in review. The judges were: Mrs. F. C. Searle, Mrs. J. A. Happer, Col. A. C. Sharpe, V. R. Stiles and A. C. Coles.

The results of the awarding were: First prize, a cup for the best decorated gasoline car, H. C. Myles's swan car; second prize, a cup for the gasoline class, W. R. Brown's third prize for gasoline cars, Arthur Malette; honorable mention, W. J. Bule.

First prize, cup for electric, Mrs. Marguerite Buckler Stevenson; second prize, Judge J. E. Bowen.

First prize, a cup for the best decorated carriage, R. L. Daniel; second prize, Mrs. J. B. Dubose.

First prize, a cup for the pony class, Miss Pearl Ponsford.

First prize, commercial class, Pomeroy's tallyho.

First prize, saddle horse, Mrs. Burlington Staten.

Mounted Riders.
The mounted division of the parade was led by Dr. W. B. Burleson Staten, mounted on gray and white horses and wearing black and white costumes. Dr. Staten rode Tennessee Fox and Mrs. Staten Kentucky Granite, the horse show favorites. Behind Dr. and Mrs. Staten rode a number of young people of the city. The El Pasoans who participated in this part of the parade were: Misses Martha Thurmond, Katharine Coles, Virginia Semple, Gladys Dyer, Hattie Irvin, Gertrude Ellis, Messrs. Ralph Henderson, W. K. Marr, C. R. Feagan, Herb Buckner, Edgar Kayser.

The Municipal band headed the next division, which consisted of the El Paso Military Institute cadets in their fatigues uniforms, and carrying their arms and side arms. The Parker show band headed the commercial class, led by the Wells Fargo express prize winners and followed by cowboy ropers and riders who were yelling their loudest and roping each other.

The Commercial Class.
The commercial class included the following: W. B. Harper, pianos; Moser Buggy company, Boston store, float; W. H. Trade drove the Wells Fargo & Company's black single horse, while J. D. Elliott drove Tobe and Bert, who won the blue ribbon in the draft horse class at Monday's horse show. Atwood & De Sizo had an automobile which was brought to El Paso eight years ago. They used it for advertising real estate.

An Accident.
There came near being a serious accident in the judges' stand while the parade was passing. The wire which was stretched for the horses to finish under, caught on the big Wells Fargo wagon, and the entire upper part of the judges' stand was pulled over on the heads and the live electric wires dragged to the ground.

Col. A. C. Sharpe, of Fort Bliss, was struck by one of the timbers and his head slightly cut. The stand was decorated with strands of electric lights and the accident came near causing a panic because of the danger from the live wires, but the power was cut off from these wires and the parade continued without serious interruption.

C. E. Gibson and Will Fraser, as the two hoboes who established camp alongside chief Os-Aple's float, were "arrested" by officers Caplinger and Parsons, and put off the track—into the judges' stand. They came back and presented a hard bucket to the swan car for the unofficial award.

Red Fire Illumination.
The red fire effect was a solution of the lighting problem for the Os-Aple parade. The illuminator was in charge of Willson, the fireworks man, and he kept the red fire blazing around the track and in front of the stands during the entire parade.

The Os-Aple parade was organized and given under the direction of E. E. Neff, assisted by H. C. Myles and Rob A. Moore. Mr. Neff was also assisted by Henry Schaffer, who devoted much of his time to getting the entries for the big parade.

Chief Os-Aple presented the silver cups in person to the winners in the different prize classes. The Chief (Bob Page) looked twice as tall in his Indian rigging.

Police chief Ben F. Jenkins, who rode his pet white horse Prince, which was formerly used by fire chief W. W. Armstrong, had a bridge which was decorated in silver made from silver dollars by a Mexican workman in El Paso. Assistant fourth prize, C. T. Harries, Colorado, Texas.

TO SHOW TROPHIES AT UP TOWN OFFICE
The three silver trophies that have been won at El Paso fairs by Burt and Tobe, the Wells-Fargo express horses, will be placed in a glass case and kept on permanent exhibition at the uptown offices of the company in the First National bank building. At the 1909 fair and exposition Burt and Tobe took the cup for heavy draft horses, and Tobe took the cup for one horse team. The team took the first trophy at the present fair, the cup being exhibited at the Wells-Fargo offices.

The prize winners were seen in the Os-Aple parade at the park fair grounds Thursday night, in charge of James D. Elliott, station agent of the express company. Unless a pair of champions develop before the fair of 1911, Burt and Tobe will add a fourth trophy to their collection, for Elliott says he is going to enter them and has money to back them on the fourth cup. Burt is 7 ears old and Tobe is 8, and both were purchased at Houston several years ago. The horses, wagon and harness of the Wells-Fargo entry are valued at $1200.

THE "GREAT BANDIT" AND HIS FIREARMS; A FAIR STORY.
Two little girls, of about the grammar school age, were in the art exhibit room at the fair. They scanned the offering with the keen scrutiny of connoisseurs, but when they came to the Lafayette exhibit, showing articles taken from the room occupied by the noted French general and American benefactor, they were stumped and their faces showed a blank and a question mark.

"Who is this fellow Lafayette anyhow, I'd like to know?" asked one of them.

Memory of past history lessons glowed dimly in the mind of one of her companions, but the opportunity of imparting correct historical information was not to be lost, so she embraced the hazard.

"Aw, don't you know? He was a awful bandit what used to be in this country," she replied, and the dramatic conversation trailed off to the

Cure Catarrh
It's Easy, Pleasant and Costs But a Trifle.

How many readers of The Herald know that in inland Australia where the mightiest of eucalyptus trees grow in abundance, that there is no consumption, catarrh or diseases of the respiratory tract?

The refreshing balsam thrown out by these trees fills the air and is breathed into the lungs by the inhabitants and all germ life is destroyed.

If you have catarrh you cannot go to inland Australia except at great expense, but you can breathe right in your own home the same pleasant, soothing, healing, germ killing air you would breathe if you were living in the eucalyptus district of Australia.

Just breathe HYOMEI; it is made from Australian eucalyptus and scientifically combined with thymol and other Listerian antiseptics.

Four a few drops of HYOMEI into the inhaler and breathe it. As it passes over the catarrh infected membrane it kills the germs and heals the raw, inflamed surfaces.

HYOMEI is guaranteed to cure catarrh, coughs, colds, croup and sore throat, or money back. Complete outfit including inhaler $1.00. Extra bottles of HYOMEI 50c each. Sold by Kelly & Pollard, and druggists everywhere.

To break up cold in head or chest in a few minutes, pour a teaspoonful of HYOMEI into a bowl of boiling water, cover head and bowl with towel and breathe the vapor.
